

Public Invited to I-84 New Mix Waterbury PEL Study Open Houses

The Connecticut Department of Transportation (CTDOT) will host the final series of public information meetings for the I-84 New Mix Waterbury Planning and Environmental Linkages \(PEL\) Study in March and April.

“The purpose of the New Mix Program is to address the long-term needs of the Interstate 84 and Route 8 interchange, which has long been a vital structure and part of the greater Waterbury transportation system,” said Connecticut Department of Transportation Project Manager Jonathan Dean. “The New Mix team will be sharing results from the study, including recommendations and final alternatives, reimagining the future of the Mixmaster. We encourage the local community use this opportunity to share feedback and ask questions regarding the program.”
